Assessments Involving Benefits for Bridge Across River at Washington Av. Transferred.

The cases involving the assessments of benefits by the board of public works in the condemnation of property for a bridge over the river at Washington av., which are pending in the circuit court, will be heard before Judge James Harmon of Elkhart sitting as special judge on Monday.

Several of the cases filed by property owners, have been set for hearing Monday but how many will be reached was problematical.

The board of public works condemned the property for a bridge June 8, 1910, and made out the assessments of benefits and awards of damages on Sept. 21, 1910. Remonstrances filed by many property owners were overruled by the board and the cases were brought to the circuit court by the property owners.

On Wednesday of next week the regular setting of cases will be made by the court instead of on Friday. Judge Funk will then adjourn court for the Christmas recess and will not recon-

The "Graphophone Gunman" Sprays His Victim With an Opiate Shower of Melody—and Gets Away With the Goods.

Burglars have discovered that the graphophone is mightier than the gun. They have just adopted it with enthusiasm as their most reliable and potent weapon.

The theory is that a revolver can be used only in one of two ways: If you enter a home and stick a gun in the indignant proprietor's face, you have to keep threatening him with it all the time you are there and this hampers your predatory proceedings. The other method is to shoot the man, which makes an annoying racket and sometimes splatters blood on the oriental rug which you hoped to make part of your booty.

There's another way: Peter Nanni, proprietor of a Chicago store, was nodding in his chair the other evening. Burglar, entering, found that any slight noise would startle Peter into nervous wakefulness. So he put a dreamy lullaby upon the graphophone and gently sprayed nodding Nanni with an opiate shower of soothing melody. Then his victim was tightly tangled in the clinging bonds of slumber. Mr. Graphophone Gunman calmly helped himself to all the valuables available and departed in peace.

venue until Monday of the following week.

Stewart Anderson was awarded judgment for $186 on account against Joseph Stout in the circuit court Friday.

Guy and Pattee, attorneys for Louis Hoffer, withdrew their appearance in two cases against Hoffer filed by Elizabeth Nemeth and the defendant was defaulted. The suits are in replevin and for possession and damages.

MISS MOERDYKE
RESIGNS AS HEAD
OF Y. W. C. A. WORK

An interesting and appropriate program and entertainment was furnished the members of the Y. W. C. A. girls of the Mishawaka Woolen Co. at the regular Thursday noon meeting, held at the rest rooms. The entertainment was in the nature of a farewell party for Miss Ruth Moerdyke, the extension secretary of the Y. W. C. A., who will sever her connection with the association and will enter the Moody Bible institute in Chicago for special study.

The hour was spent singing old Christmas carols and listening to readings by Miss Frances Foy, after which the girls through Miss Helen Eager, presented Miss Moerdyke with a beautiful gift as evidence of their love and esteem in which this popular young lady is held by the girls. Miss Moerdyke has been at the head of the work here since the inception of the association here a year ago. The loss of her services will be keenly felt. Her successor has not yet been appointed, but Miss Frances Foy, the assistant secretary, will fill the place until some one is appointed.

'WHY GIRLS LEAVE HOME.'

A new version of side-splitting comedy that won world wide fame several years ago; a pins minister learns with horror of the coming performance of the heart rending drama 'Why Girls Leave Home.' He decides to see the play in order to preach it more effectively. His entire household visits the play for other reasons. The harrowing details of the play itself and many ridiculous incidents which occur in the audience, together with duplicity in the minister's household, combine to make this the greatest two-reel comedy ever produced.

Mishawaka Five Determined to Establish New Tradition on Basketball Court.

It has been an old tradition that the South Bend high school basketball squad can defeat the Mishawaka high school basketball team. The first team of the local high school expects to break this tradition on Saturday afternoon, when they will meet the South Bend team at South Bend.

Much enthusiasm has been aroused among the local students as a result of a mass meeting, held on Thursday afternoon in the local gym. This meeting was in charge of Garfield Lovell, the yell-master. The team will be accompanied to South Bend by a large number of the rooters, who will use their influence in helping the team to victory.

The local squad is in fine condition as every effort has been put forth by Coach Hindelang and the team is confident of victory.

The lineup for the Mishawaka team will be as follows: Russ, Bussart, guards; Eager, center; Giel and Studley, forwards; subs, Kohler and Siefert.

A game between the second team of Mishawaka high school and the second team of the South Bend high school will be played as a curtain raiser to the big game.

MEBALSKI HELD TO JURY;
12th CHRISTMAS IN JAIL

Lottie Mihalaki was bound over to the federal grand jury on a charge of entering railroad cars in interstate shipping after a hearing before United States Commissioner Thad M. Talcott.

The boy who is charged to be Mihalaki's pal and calls himself Joe Anderson, was discharged after the hearing in the federal court but was immediately re-arrested by the local authorities on charge of violating a state law.

Both of the boys are still in jail. Mihalaki this year will spend Christmas for the 12th consecutive time behind prison bars. His prosecution is one of the first under the federal statutes. Anderson is said to have signed a written confession.

The Christian Savings club seems to be the popular sentiment amongst the citizens of Mishawaka at the present time.
